

Republicanism, the Rule of Law, and Democracy

International Conference

Johann Wolfgang Goethe-Universität

Frankfurt/Main

March 18-20, 2009

Eine Veranstaltung des

Instituts für Philosophie der
Johann Wolfgang Goethe-Universität Frankfurt am Main Grüneburgplatz 1
60629 Frankfurt am Main

Verantwortlich:

Prof. Dr. Dr. Matthias Lutz-Bachmann
PD Dr. Andreas Niederberger
Philipp Schink, M.A.

Für Rückfragen:

Tel.: 069/798-32774

E-mail: Niederberger@em.uni-frankfurt.de, Schink@em.uni-frankfurt.de

Mit freundlicher Unterstützung der

Wednesday, March 18, 2009

18.15 Philip Pettit (Princeton)
Law and Republican Liberty

Thursday, March 19, 2009

I. Law, Rule of Law, and Critique of Law
in Republicanism

Chair: N.N.

9.00-10.00 Marco Geuna (Milan)
The Tension Between Law and Politics in the Modern Republican Tradition

10.15-11.15 Jack N. Rakove (Stanford)
Impotence, Perspicuity, and a Government of Laws: Madison's Critique of Republican Legislation

11.30-12.30 Matthias Lutz-Bachmann (Frankfurt/Main)
The Concept of Law and the Idea of a Republican Order: The Political Philosophy of Kant and Its Challenges Today

Chair: N.N.

14.30-15.30 Hauke Brunkhorst (Flensburg)
Democratic Participation, Civil Rights and Law (Working Title)

15.45-16.45 Philipp Schink (Frankfurt/Main)
A Republican Rule of Law

17.00-18.00 John Ferejohn (Stanford)
Alternative Conceptions of Republicanism: Legal Consequences

18.15-19.15 John P. McCormick (Chicago)
Political Republicanism

Friday, March 20, 2009

II. Which Democracy Corresponds to the Republican Rule of Law?

Chair: N.N.

9.00-10.00 Richard Bellamy (London)
Republicanism and Political Constitutionalism (Working Title)

10.15-11.15 Galya B. Ruffer (Evanston)
Beyond Status and Function: Legal Formations of Democratic Citizens in the Current Republican Theory

11.30-12.30 Rainer Forst (Frankfurt/Main)
A Republican Conception of Justice

III. Republicanism in a Transnational Democracy or a Transnational Rule of Law?

Chair: N.N.

14.30-15.30 Andreas Niederberger (Frankfurt/Main)
Republicanism and Transnational Democracy

15.45-16.45 James Bohman (St. Louis)
Living Without Freedom: Cosmopolitanism at Home and the Rule of Law