Refereeing for the journal 'Development'

I am updating our contacts database and we have your email number listed as a potential referee.

To help the editors assign referees to future manuscripts, we would be grateful if you could also supply us with four to six key words that describe your specialist subject area.

In addition, can you please let me know your current mailing address and telephone number.

If you would prefer to have your details deleted from our records, please let me know.

Thank you in advance.
