

O|i|D|H

OBSERVATORIO INTERNACIONAL DE DERECHOS HUMANOS

Justice & Culture

Legal techniques and arguments to deal with multicultural conflicts

11 May

h. 14,30-19,30

Language: English (with translation to Italian)

Opening

Pietro Ciarlo, Pro-Rector University of Cagliari
Irene Spigno, Inter-American Academy of Human Rights

Introduction

Ilenia Ruggiu, CLISEL Coordinator, University of Cagliari
Prakash Shah Queen Mary, University of London

Part I

The comparative perspective

Chair Ilenia Ruggiu, University of Cagliari

Justice and culture in the USA

Alison Dundes Renteln, University of Southern California, USA

Justice and culture in Canada

Avigail Eisenberg, University of Victoria, Canada

Justice and culture in the UK

Prakash Shah, Queen Mary, University of London

Justice and culture in the Interamerican Court

Irene Spigno, Inter-American Academy of Human Rights, Mexico

h. 17,30 coffee break

Part II

Balancing culture: the cases

Chair Irene Spigno, Inter-American Academy of Human Rights, Mexico

The male circumcision in Germany

Marie-Claire Foblets, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle, Germany

The child marriages and law in Turkey

Derya Bayir, Ismail Besikci Foundation

The cultural difference between China and the West

Elisa Rotino, LUISS University-Rome

Debate

with lawyers and judges from the Observatory on Trans-cultural Dialogues at the Italian Supreme Court and with Sardinian Mayors

Presentation of the project "The Max Planck database project on religious and cultural diversity" (Eugenia Relaño Pastor and Rodrigo Cespedes)

Presentation of the project "Cultural Expertise in Europe: What is it useful for?" Anna Tsalapatani, Post-doctoral Research Officer (EURO-EXPERT), Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, University of Oxford

12 May

h. 9,00-15,00

(Language: Italian with translation to English)

Balancing culture: the cases in Italy

Chair Gianmario Demuro and Ilenia Ruggiu

Culture and the "child best interest" principle

Adequacy in parenting An overview of Italian case law,
Paola Lovati, Attorney in Milan

On the importance of studying case - law

Luis Efrén Ríos Vega, Inter-American Academy of Human Rights, Mexico

Adoptability (Trial Court of Trieste for minors 61/2008)

Luigi Rossi, Attorney in Venice

Roma Wedding with minor

(Italian Supreme Court of Cassation, criminal sec. III, 53135/2017)

Letizia Mancini, University of Milan

Culture and the "anti-patriarchal" principle

Honor Killing (Italian Supreme Court, criminal sec. I, 6587/2009)

Livia Holden, EURO-EXPERT, Centre for Socio-Legal Studies, School of Law-Oxford

Kidnapping (Italian Supreme Court, criminal sec. V, 39197/2015)

Eleonora Ceccherini, University of Genova

Female Circumcision (Court of Appeal of Venice n. 1485/2012)

Lucia Bellucci, University of Milan

Marital Rape (Italian Supreme Court, criminal sec. III, 14960/2015)

Federica Tosel, Attorney in Udine

Culture and the "values of the majority" principle

Kirpan (Italian Supreme Court, criminal sec. I, 24084/2017)
Clara Rigoni, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Friburg

Debate

With lawyers and judges from the Observatory on Trans-cultural Dialogues at the Italian Supreme Court and with Sardinian Mayors

Conclusions

Giacinto Bisogni, Italian Supreme Court of Cassation

h. 14,00

Lunch and Networking session

Department of Jurisprudence, Classroom A, Viale S. Ignazio 72 Cagliari

www.academiaidh.org.mx

Scientific coordination: Ilenia Ruggiu - iruggiu@unica.it, Irene Spigno - aidh@uadec.edu.mx